

Synergy Awarded 2017 Infor Manufacturing Partner of the Year

INFOR PARTNER OF THE YEAR AWARDS WERE PRESENTED AT THE ANNUAL INFOR AMERICAS PARTNER SUMMIT 2017 ON JULY 9-10, 2017 IN NEW YORK CITY.

Winners were congratulated based on performance and recognized by Infor's Lisa Joseph, Vice President North America Channels, and Salena Butler, Vice President Channels. They were joined in presenting the award to Synergy Resources by Infor's Ken Philp, Regional Vice President and Robert Hudaj, Regional Vice President who both partner with Synergy Resources' sales team. Infor rewards distinguished Partners via this awards program, in front of peers, Infor leaders and industry media and analysts, applauding the most successful Infor Partner Network (IPN) members.

Synergy's Mark Lilly, Co-owner and Paul Tedford, Executive Director of Sales & Marketing, accepted the prestigious award "2017 Infor Manufacturing Partner of the Year". That makes it 6 out of the past 7 years that Synergy has been recognized for this award!

WHAT DIFFERENTIATES SYNERGY? We not only sell software and offer our customers implementation, application and technical services, but we also offer an extensive range of performance improvement programs designed to help unlock profitability by driving revenue, optimizing costs and improving operational effectiveness. We understand our customers' industry requirements and have developed effective solutions that will help their businesses improve.

"The goal of the Infor Partner Network has always been to elevate our partners' capabilities, to help our partners evolve to meet market demands, and to arm our partners with everything they need in order to be successful," said Jeff Abbott, Senior Vice President, Global Channel Business Unit, Infor. "This has been another great year for the IPN and we are pleased to be able to recognize the partners that have done outstanding work with us."

